

Richmond Methodist School Home School Agreement

This document is one of the foundations of the partnership between home and school. It is drawn up after consultation with teachers, governors and parents. We hope that it enhances the value of the education we provide for the children. Please make a copy and retain if you wish.

In order to achieve the best we can for each pupil, Richmond Methodist School will:

- encourage each child to achieve their potential at all times
- encourage each child to become an independent learner
- do everything possible to ensure the well-being and safety of each child whilst they are in our care
- encourage each child to set high expectations for themselves in achievement and behaviour
- provide a broad and balanced curriculum and make it available and accessible to all
- provide a welcome for all children in school regardless of ability, gender, race, religion or ethnic group
- create an ethos and environment which encourages them to develop spiritual, moral, cultural and social understanding
- provide information to parents to enable them to encourage and support their child's education
- keep parents regularly informed of their child's progress, and general school matters
- provide a welcome for all parents to be involved in the life of the school

The Parent or Guardians of children at Richmond Methodist School will:

- support the School's educational policies and programmes
- support the School's pastoral policies including those concerning behaviour and dress
- co-operate with the School's homework policies and encourage their children in their learning
- share with the school information which may affect their child's learning and behaviour
- be sure their children attend school regularly and punctually and let the school know as soon as possible the reason for any absence
- attend the School's Parent-Teacher Consultations

Signed by the Parent/Guardian : _____ of _____ ### Children at Richmond Methodist School will:

- try always to achieve the expectations set in learning
- seek to follow the expectation in behaviour set out in the school's policies
- complete as well as they possibly can the work set for them to do in class and at home
- attend school regularly and at the proper time
- follow the dress code
- be sure that all letters and messages are passed on promptly
- care for the School and the resources they share

I have discussed this with my parents and I sign this for myself:
